

STYLE RULES FOR PAPERS ACCEPTED FOR PUBLICATION

1. Paper should be A4-sized with 2.5cm (1 inch) margins on both sides, top and bottom. Use Times New Roman font for text, titles, footnotes and equations, and Arial font for tables and graphs.

2. The first page should include

Centered, single-spaced, in bold and in font size 12:

- (a) Title
- (b) Authors
- (c) Affiliation

Against the left margin, in font size 11:

- (d) Abstract in Spanish (no more than 100 words)
- (e) Abstract in English (no more than 100 words)
- (f) JEL codes (at least one and no more than three):
http://www.aeaweb.org/jel/jel\_class\_system.php
- (g) Keywords in Spanish and English (no more than six words in each language)
- (h) Footnote in font size 9 indicating the corresponding author with full postal address, the e-mail address of all authors, and the acknowledgements

3. The main text should be in font size 11, 1.5 spacing, and with a 0.5 cm indentation in the first line. Footnotes should be in font size 9 and numbered consecutively. Titles, subtitles and subsection titles should go against the left margin and be in bold. Subtitles are indicated with Roman numerals (I, II, etc.) and subsection titles Arabic numbers (1, 2, etc.). References to articles or books in the text should be made as García (1993) or (García 1993). In cases of three coauthors or more, use the format Mendez et al. (1993).

4. Equations should be numbered consecutively, against the right margin, with numbers in parenthesis, (1), (2), etc.

5. Tables and Graphs should be informative, and presented without colours or abbreviations. Tables should be numbered with Arabic numerals, have title, units of measure, source and explicative footnotes. Titles should appear outside and above the table, against the left margin, in Times New Roman font, bold and size 11. Footnotes should appear outside and under the table, in Times New Roman font, size 9. To allow editing, tables should not be inserted as images.

6. The References section should come after the Conclusions and be singled-spaced, in font size 11, against the left margin, and sorted alphabetically by first author's last name (use coauthors last names and chronological order as secondary sorting criteria). All materials should be cited in its original language of publication.

Some examples:

For periodicals:

Moore, John, and Rafael Repullo (1988). "Subgame Perfect Implementation." Econometrica, Vol. 56(5): 1191-1220.

Albornoz, Facundo y Marta Menéndez (2007). "Income Dynamics in Argentina During the 1990's: 'Mobiles' Did Change Over Time". Económica, Vol. LIII(1-2): 21-52.

For books:

Austen-Smith, David, and Jeffrey S. Banks (2005). Positive Political Theory II: strategy and structure. Ann Arbor: University of Michigan Press.

For contributions to collective works:

Groves, Theodore, and John O. Ledyard (1987). "Incentive Compatibility since 1972." In Information, Incentives, and Economic Mechanisms: Essays in Honor of Leonid Hurwicz, ed. T. Groves, R. Radner, and S. Reiter, 48-111. Minneapolis: University of Minnesota Press.

For working papers or unpublished manuscripts:

Bundorf, M. Kate, Jonathan D. Levin, and Neale Mahoney (2008). "Pricing and Welfare in Health Plan Choice." Working Paper 14153, NBER.

Drazen, Allan (2001). "Laying low during elections: Political pressure and monetary accommodation." Manuscrito no publicado, Tel Aviv University.

8. The Appendix should be placed after the References section and be unnumbered. Appendix equations, tables and graphs should be numbered consecutively as A1, A2, etc. In cases of multiple Appendices, they should be numbered as subsections with letters A, B, etc, and their equations, tables and graphs as A1, A2, ... , B1, B2, etc.

9. Acknowledgements should be placed in the first page as a footnote of the title.